Girls Rule Foundation Extends Nominations for 2019 Awards and Mentoring Program Call for nominations for Arizona girl leaders and change agents between Ages 12 and 18

PHOENIX – Girls Rule Foundation, a local nonprofit that empowers and trains today's girls to be tomorrow's leaders, has opened nominations for its seventh annual Brilliant, Beautiful and Bold Role Model Awards & Mentoring Program.

With nominations from parents, teachers, coaches, principals, mentors, community organizations and community leaders, Girls Rule Foundation has recognized dozens of Arizona residents between the ages 12 and 18 with the past six Brilliant, Beautiful and Bold Role Model Awards. Nominations are submitted online and include questions and a short essay about the nominee. Nominations are accepted until November 11th at 6pm at <http://www.brilliantbeautifulandbold.com>

"I am so impressed every year by the brilliant, beautiful and bold nominees in our state," says Dena Patton, CEO and co-founder of Girls Rule Foundation. "These young ladies are already role models in so many ways, and Girls Rule Foundation is here to help them take their dreams to the next level. Today's girls are tomorrow's leaders, and we need to make sure they are equipped to succeed."

All of the nominees are celebrated and honored on December 14th at ASU at the VIP Nominee Reception. The public is encouraged to attend this event to celebrate the girls, and we will award six girls the title of 2019 Brilliant, Beautiful and Bold Winners. The winners will receive one year of leadership mentoring with our team of mentors, and a total of $1000 cash, plus other prizes.
